Sales Associate Trial Agreement

2-Week Paid Trial | Commission-Based + Weekly Bonus

Company: Steady Hands LLC Associate: _____

Trial start: _____ Trial end: _____ Work location (state/country): _____

1. Trial arrangement and services

This agreement is issued individually to the named associate for a two-week trial. Contact prospective business customers remotely, describe services and pricing accurately, share website previews, follow up, and promptly record call outcomes and customer information. Trial completion does not promise continued engagement.

Schedule: Flexible trial activities, without an agreed fixed weekly hour allocation. No contractual hourly base rate is offered under this track; any wages required by applicable law remain payable. Track time worked where required.

2. Compensation and weekly bonuses

Pay component	Amount	Details
Hourly base	None	This track is commission-based, subject to any minimum wages or other compensation required by applicable law.
Sales commission	$30	Per qualifying paid sale.
Weekly bonus	$0	0-4 qualifying paid sales in one week.
Weekly bonus	$100	5-9 qualifying paid sales in one week.
Weekly bonus	$250	10 or more qualifying paid sales in one week.

A sale qualifies only after the client purchase payment is received and verified and the sale is attributed to the associate in company records.

Bonuses are calculated separately for each Monday–Sunday bonus week in the company accounting timezone. The $250 bonus replaces (does not stack with) the $100 bonus. Earned commissions and bonuses are added to applicable wages. Payment is issued every two weeks on Saturday, according to the company’s payment calendar, subject to applicable pay deadlines.

Performance, Communication and Evaluation

3. Trial sales requirements and end-of-trial evaluation

Training target: 2 qualifying paid sales per week as a development goal. Trial assessment considers progress and quality of outreach, not just the number of sales.

At the end of two weeks, Steady Hands LLC reviews paid sales, follow-ups, attendance/availability where applicable, accuracy of records, communication, professionalism, and company procedures. Possible outcomes are an offer of further engagement under separately confirmed terms, a separately agreed extended evaluation, or the end of the trial. No transition is automatic.

4. Communication and activity

Provide daily updates on activity, significant follow-ups, and blockers; complete a weekly check-in on sales progress and availability.

Dialing guide: 15–20 attempted calls per active dialing hour, allowing for discussions and notes. This is a planning benchmark, not a basis to withhold earned pay. Follow applicable calling/opt-out rules, protect customer information, and do not make unauthorized promises.

5. Trial end, changes, and earned compensation

The trial is intended to conclude on the end date above unless the parties agree otherwise in writing. Either party may end the engagement subject to applicable law and any required notice. Steady Hands LLC may decide not to continue the engagement after evaluation, subject to applicable law. All wages, commissions, and bonuses already earned remain payable; performance targets do not cancel earned compensation. Any later arrangement, hours, or pay terms must be confirmed in writing and comply with applicable law.
